

“Congratulations to Brown Advisory for being United Way of Central Maryland’s “Organization of the Year” award recipient. This award is presented to organizations that demonstrate an extraordinary commitment to United Way and sustain and grow a successful Tocqueville Society campaign. Thanks to your generous support and leadership, Brown Advisory sets the example for other organizations to follow. The award will be presented to President and CEO, Michael D. Hankin, at the annual Tocqueville Society event on Thursday, September 16, 2010 at 6 p.m. Thank you for your outstanding dedication and commitment to improving people’s lives in our community!”

-- Mark S. Furst, President and CEO