U.S. SMALL BLEND

WHY INVEST IN BROWN ADVISORY SMALL-CAP FUNDAMENTAL VALUE FUND?

The Fund seeks to invest primarily in equity securities of small companies that we believe are mispriced relative to our assessment of their underlying value. Fund manager David Schuster believes, at times, the market price of a stock does not necessarily equate to a company's value. We focus on identifying companies that have sustainable free cash flow and management teams that demonstrate effective use of capital.

Our Fund manager and investment team have backgrounds that support our unique research-intensive approach. Many members of our investment team, including David, have extensive investment banking backgrounds. They seek to assess classic value-oriented opportunities or special business situations where the market is overlooking or mispricing a company's entire worth. These valuation gaps may provide a margin of safety and the potential for relative outperformance over the long term.

A shared culture of thoughtful investing.

Brown Advisory's investment team is made up of independent thinkers who nonetheless share a common philosophy. We invest for the long term in what we consider to be exceptional businesses, and we keep our portfolios focused on a relatively small number of our best investment ideas. We believe that this sort of active management is the best way to attempt to generate long-term outperformance vs. our benchmarks.

Investments in smaller companies generally carry greater risk than is customarily associated with larger companies for various reasons such as narrower markets, limited financial resources and less liquid stock. The value of the Fund's investments in REITs may change in response to changes in the real estate market such as declines in the value of real estate, lack of available capital or financing opportunities, and increases in property taxes or operating costs. The Fund may invest in ETFs, which may trade at a discount to the aggregate value of the underlying securities and although expense ratios for ETFs are generally low, frequent trading of ETFs by the Fund can generate brokerage expenses. The Fund may invest in foreign securities which involve greater volatility and political, economic and currency risks and differences in accounting methods. These risks are greater in emerging markets. Investments in debt securities typically decrease in value when interest rates rise. This risk is usually greater for longer-term debt securities. Derivatives may involve certain costs and risks such as liquidity, interest rate, market, credit, management, and the risk that a position could not be closed when most advantageous. Investing in derivatives could lose more than the amount invested. Investments in lower-rated and non-rated securities present a greater risk of loss to principal and interest than higher-rated securities. Private Placement issued securities are restricted securities that are not publicly traded. Delay or difficulty in selling such securities may result in a loss to the Fund.

Performance figures and charts include the reinvestment of dividend and capital gain distributions.
